THREE CITIES PROGRAM	For THREE CITIES students:
<input type="radio"/> Three Cities Program	This semester-long study abroad experience connects students to three diverse Italian cities, each with a distinct identity and culture; Tuscany, Rome and Florence. Students spend one month in Tuscany followed by one month in Rome, and then they complete the experience in Florence. They follow a structured program of five courses, including one in Italian language and culture. Please note all courses are mandatory and cannot be changed, dropped or withdrawn from.

ROME PROGRAMS (SEE LIST BELOW)	For STEM students:
<input type="radio"/> Four Courses + Italian Language (3-4 hrs/week)	The STEM Program combines a core course on Italy's contributions to modern sciences with a selection of science courses that is subject to change each semester. Furthermore, students can choose from among a variety of general education courses. The core course and the STEM courses cannot be changed, dropped or withdrawn from. Italian language study is encouraged but no language courses are required. To enroll, select the STEM Program and list in the course selection chart below the core course, the science courses and the general education courses you want to take. To help ensure a successful experience, we recommend that students take no more than two science courses with a lab component.

- During the semester, all students must select an Italian language section and alternative section that fit their schedule. Italian language (ITL code) and Italian language and culture (ITC code) courses are equivalent in terms of satisfying the LdM language requirement. Italian language is optional during short terms and during the second semester for academic year students.
- At LdM, non-beginning students will take an Italian placement test to confirm their level. As a result of the placement test LdM reserves the right to move students into a different level. Therefore, students must be aware that their schedule is subject to adjustments.
- Any student taking a science course in Rome during the semester belongs to the STEM Program.

REGISTRATION POLICIES

- Students will automatically be enrolled in their alternative program/course/section if any of their first choices are unavailable (cancelled due to insufficient enrollment or full). The Registrar reserves the right to move students to a different section in order to balance course enrollment, or deny course change requests.
- All course change requests, before and after arrival, must be supported and accompanied by a strong academic reason.
- A level test will be administered at the beginning of Performing Arts and Intermediate/Advanced level Studio Art and Design courses to confirm the students' level. Many of the Studio Art and Design courses list two time blocks. Students enrolled in these courses must attend both time blocks.
- Students may attend only the courses listed on their Official Registration form. Auditing is not allowed.
- Only one class can be changed upon arrival at LdM, depending on course availability. This is only allowed during the first days of classes, before Final Registration. Final Registration deadlines will be announced during Orientation. No exceptions will be made to these deadlines. This is not available for the Three Cities program, Summer Workshops, Field School, STEM Program courses.
- The science courses in Rome cannot be changed, dropped or withdrawn from.
- The break between Summer Session I and Summer Session II does NOT apply to students attending the 6-week science courses offered at LdM Rome.
- Students participating in an internship must fulfill the relevant prerequisites. Concurrent enrollment in a course in the same field is required. The application for an LdM internship is due by the application deadline, along with the required supporting documentation (eg. student's resumé, formal letter of intent, two reference letters, portfolio, etc.). Late submission of the supporting documentation can compromise the eligibility for an internship placement. Placement in internships is not guaranteed and choosing an alternate course is mandatory. Students taking an internship must retain a minimum number of courses/hours. Internships cannot be added during the add/drop period. Internships have particular attendance regulations.
- No refunds will be issued for any reason after arrival at LdM.
- Students must retain full-time status. Students may not drop or withdraw (with a "W" or "W/F") from a course if it would bring them below the minimum number of courses. Students relying on financial aid are responsible to know if they are required to be enrolled in a minimum number of courses/hours. During the summer sessions, special cuisine and wine offerings are available only in addition to daily classes.
- Mid-terms and final exams will be given only on the scheduled days that appear on each course syllabus and will not be moved under any circumstances, including illness, travel plans, family matters etc. Exams are scheduled during normal class times, so more than one exam may be administered on the same day.
- Students are not allowed to make up any assessed in-class activities they may have missed (including but not limited to quizzes, tests etc.) under any circumstances, including illness, travel plans, family matters etc.
- LdM does not offer Pass/Fail grades or Incompletes, only letter grades. All classes registered for and grades received will appear on each student's Certificate of Academic Performance. Students are responsible for understanding the LdM grading system. Detailed information about grading/evaluation can be found in the specific course syllabi.
- Students with documented learning disabilities will be subject to local educational standards. Based on current and official documentation of the disability, LdM will provide assistance to these students. It is each student's responsibility to provide this documentation during the registration process and within the deadline. LdM is able to guarantee the following: Italian language tutoring, administration of exams in separate classrooms, and extra time for completion of exams.

- a) LdM reserves the right to withhold the Certificate of Academic Performance and/or housing deposit of students who violate contract agreements related to housing and/or academic issues (i.e., any balance or debt incurred) and/or whose behavior is considered detrimental towards the institute and other students. The Rules of Conduct applied at this Institute may be different from the rules applied by the student's home school.
- b) The Lorenzo de' Medici Rules of Conduct must be carefully read by each student. A copy of the Rules of Conduct is included in the Orientation Packet given to every student and is also distributed during Orientation at LdM and shown in every building of the Institute.
- It is ABSOLUTELY REQUIRED that all students attend the ORIENTATION MEETING. Students must make sure they plan their travel itinerary accordingly. For the Three Cities Program all three orientations (in Tuscania, Rome and Florence) are mandatory. The arrival date listed on the LdM academic calendar must be respected.
- All students are required to carry a cell phone at all times that can receive text messages and phone calls in Italy and to provide the phone number to LdM at Orientation.

ATTENDANCE POLICIES

- Course attendance is a primary requirement for a responsible learning experience at LdM.
- Absences will also be counted during the first days of class unless students added the class during the add/drop period.
- Punctuality is mandatory. Students must arrive in class on time: any lateness, leaving class during the lesson without notice, not showing up on time after the break or leaving earlier will impact the participation grade and the Final Grade.
- Students are responsible for keeping track of their absences and for catching up on any missed work.
- Make-up classes are always mandatory as part of the course program.
- If a class occasionally creates conflict with another class, the student is required to inform both instructors in advance.
- For no reason (i.e., travel plans, family matters etc.) will absences be excused.
- Students will receive an "F" on each exam they miss.
- Students who leave LdM before the end of the term must fill out an Official Withdrawal Request form and return it to their advisor. Students who submit the form by the "W" Withdrawal deadline will receive a "W" for each non-completed course. Students who submit the form by the "W/F" Withdrawal deadline will receive a "W/F" for each non-completed course. Students who leave LdM without submitting the form will receive an "F" in each non-completed course. In all cases, students will not receive a refund.
