REGISTRATION POLICIES

- The Academic Year Certificate courses have already been determined by LdM. Students cannot change their courses or sections.
- The Semester Certificate courses have already been determined by LdM and students cannot change the course selection. Core courses or sections cannot be changed. Only one track course can be changed upon arrival at LdM, choosing from the list of approved track courses and depending on course availability. Section changes are not allowed for track or core courses. Any track course change is only allowed during the first week of classes, before the Final Registration deadline. All course change requests must be supported by a strong academic reason. LdM encourages students to consider course load and exam scheduling when making registration decisions.
- Students may attend only the courses listed on their Official Registration form. Auditing is not allowed.
- Many of the Studio Art and Design courses list two time blocks. Students enrolled in these courses must attend both time blocks.
- Students pre-registered for a non-beginning course, including Italian, must check the LdM Catalogue and Course Schedule online to make sure they meet all the prerequisites. A placement test will be administered to confirm the students' level. As a result of the placement test, LdM reserves the right to move students into a different level.
- A level test will be administered at the beginning of Intermediate/Advanced level Studio Art and Design courses to confirm the students' level. Students who fail one or more level tests will have the option of enrolling in the beginning level of the Certificate or switching to the Study Abroad Program and paying the difference in tuition.
- Students must retain full-time status. Students relying on financial aid are responsible to know if they are required to be enrolled in a minimum number of courses/hours
- No refunds will be issued for any reason after the program start date.
- In the event of insufficient enrollment in particular courses (especially at the higher levels), LdM reserves the right to adjust the balance of teaching/ open studio hours.
- Mid-terms and final exams will be given only on the scheduled days that appear on each course syllabus and will not be moved under any circumstances, including illness, travel plans, family matters, etc. Exams are scheduled during normal class times, so more than one exam may be administered on the same day.
- Students are not allowed to make up any assessed in-class activities they may have missed (including, but not limited to, quizzes, tests etc.) under any circumstances, including illness, travel plans, family matters, etc.
- Students with documented learning disabilities will be subject to local educational standards. Based on current and official documentation of the disability, LdM will provide assistance to these students. LdM is able to guarantee the following: Italian language tutoring, administration of exams in separate classrooms, and extra time for completion of exams.
- LdM does not offer Pass/Fail grades or Incompletes, only letter grades. All classes registered for and grades received will appear on each student's academic record. Students are responsible for understanding the LdM grading system. Detailed information about grading/evaluation can be found in the specific course syllabi.

 - a) The Rules of Conduct applied at this Institute may be different from the rules applied by the student's home school.
 - b) The Lorenzo de' Medici Rules of Conduct must be carefully read by each student. A copy of the Rules of Conduct is included in the Orientation Packet given to every student and is also distributed during Orientation at LdM and shown in every building of the Institute.
- It is ABSOLUTELY REQUIRED that all students attend all ORIENTATION MEETINGS (regardless of whether these take place online or onsite). Students must make sure they plan their travel itinerary accordingly. The arrival date listed on the LdM academic calendar must be respected.

- Make-up classes, also during reading days where necessary, are always mandatory as part of the course program.
- If a class occasionally creates conflict with another class, the student is required to inform both instructors in advance.
