PART 1: SEMESTER PROGRAM AND COURSE SELECTION

TWO ITALIES PROGRAM:

Florence and Tuscania – Fall Semester

For TWO ITALIES students:

This semester-long study abroad experience connects students to two diverse Italian locations, each with a distinct identity and culture; Florence and Tuscania. Students begin their academic journey in Florence and complete the experience in Tuscania, where they follow a structured program of five courses, including one in Italian language and culture, which begins with a pre-session component in Florence. Please note all courses are mandatory and cannot be changed, dropped or withdrawn from. Please consult the Two Italies Brochure for the Academic Calendar and for further course information.

- Verify that there are no time conflicts among your selected courses and alternatives.
- Carefully check the course descriptions in the Academic Catalog and/or Schedule for prerequisites (including ITL and ITC courses, if applicable). Concurrent enrollment does not satisfy prerequisite requirements: you must have completed the prerequisites before arrival at LdM.
- Consider that your schedule may be subject to adjustments up until the final registration deadline (see Academic Calendar for details).
- LdM encourages students to consider course load and exam scheduling when making registration decisions.
- Italian language is optional at LdM, with the exception of the Two Italies program, for which an Italian language and culture course forms part of the curriculum.

Selecting an Italian class:

Although Italian language is optional, the selection of an Italian course is recommended for students seeking to further enrich their cultural experience in Italy.

Read the course descriptions carefully when selecting Italian language courses. Beginning Italian Language Students (who have had no previous Italian) must select an Italian language section that fits their schedule. Non-beginning students (who have had at least one semester or equivalent of Italian) should choose an Italian language course that is appropriate for their level, by carefully checking the LdM Academic Catalog and Course Schedule for prerequisites. These students will take a placement test to confirm their level and LdM reserves the right to move students into a different level based on the results of said placement test. Therefore, students must be aware that their schedule is subject to adjustments

REGISTRATION POLICIES

- Students will automatically be enrolled in their alternative program/course/section if any of their first choices are unavailable (cancelled due to insufficient enrollment or full). The Registrar reserves the right to move students to a different section in order to balance course enrollment, or deny course change requests.
- All course change requests, before and after arrival, must be supported and accompanied by a strong academic reason.
- A level test will be administered at the beginning of Performing Arts and Intermediate/Advanced level Studio Art and Design courses to confirm the students' level. Many of the Studio Art and Design courses list two time blocks. Students enrolled in these courses must attend both time blocks.
- Students may attend only the courses listed on their Official Registration form. Auditing is not allowed.

- Only one class can be changed upon arrival at LdM, depending on course availability. This is only allowed during the first days of classes, before Final Registration. Final Registration deadlines will be announced during Orientation. No exceptions will be made to these deadlines. This is not available for the Two Italies program, Field School or Workshops.
- Students participating in an internship must fulfill the relevant prerequisites. Concurrent enrollment in a course in the same field is required. The application for an LdM internship is due by the application deadline, along with the required supporting documentation (eg. student's CV, formal letter of intent, two reference letters, portfolio, etc.). Late submission of the supporting documentation can compromise the eligibility for an internship placement. Placement in internships is not guaranteed and choosing an alternate course is mandatory. Students taking an internship must retain a minimum number of courses/hours. Internships cannot be added during the add/drop period. Internships have particular attendance regulations.
- No refunds will be issued for classes dropped after the program start date.
- Students must retain full-time status. Students may not drop or withdraw (with a "W" or "W/F") from a course if it would bring them below the minimum number of courses. Students relying on financial aid are responsible to know if they are required to be enrolled in a minimum number of courses/hours. During the summer sessions, special cuisine and wine offerings are available only in addition to daily classes.
- Mid-terms and final exams will be given only on the scheduled days that appear on each course syllabus and will not be moved under any circumstances, including illness, travel plans, family matters etc. Exams are scheduled during normal class times, so more than one exam may be administered on the same day.
- Students are not allowed to make up any assessed in-class activities they may have missed (including but not limited to quizzes, tests etc.) under any circumstances, including illness, travel plans, family matters etc.
- LdM does not offer Pass/Fail grades or Incompletes, only letter grades. All classes registered for and grades received will appear on each student's Certificate of Academic Performance. Students are responsible for understanding the LdM grading system. Detailed information about grading/evaluation can be found in the specific course syllabi.
- Students with documented learning disabilities will be subject to local educational standards. Based on current and official documentation of the disability, LdM will provide assistance to these students. It is each student's responsibility to provide this documentation during the registration process and within the deadline. LdM is able to guarantee the following: Italian language tutoring, administration of exams in separate classrooms, and extra time for completion of exams.
- LdM reserves the right to withhold the Certificate of Academic Performance and/or housing deposit of students who violate contract agreements related to housing and/or academic issues (i.e., any balance or debt incurred) and/or whose behavior is considered detrimental towards the institute and other students.
 - a) The Rules of Conduct applied at this Institute may be different from the rules applied by the student's home school.
 - b) The Lorenzo de' Medici Rules of Conduct must be carefully read by each student. A copy of the Rules of Conduct is included in the Orientation Packet given to every student and is also distributed during Orientation at LdM and shown in every building of the Institute.
- It is ABSOLUTELY REQUIRED that all students attend all ORIENTATION MEETINGS (regardless of whether these take place online or onsite). Students must make sure they plan their travel itinerary accordingly. For the Two Italies Program all orientations are mandatory (both online and in person at each site). The arrival date listed on the LdM academic calendar must be respected.
- All students are required to carry a cell phone at all times that can receive text messages and phone calls in Italy and to provide the phone number to LdM at Orientation.
- Applicants to the Two Italies and Tuscania Program may be asked to provide an alternative site and alternative courses (if applicable), depending on enrollment demand for the selected term.
- Students who leave LdM before the end of the term must fill out an Official Withdrawal Request form and return it to their advisor. Students who submit the form by the "W" Withdrawal deadline will receive a "W" for each non-completed course. Students who submit the form by the "W/F" Withdrawal deadline will receive a "W/F" for each non-completed course. Students who leave LdM without submitting the form will receive an "F" in each non-completed course. In all cases, students will not receive a refund.

ATTENDANCE POLICIES

- Course attendance is a primary requirement for a responsible learning experience at LdM. Students are expected to participate in and attend, all online and in person class meetings.
- Punctuality is mandatory. Students must arrive in class on time: any lateness, leaving class during the lesson without notice, not showing up on time after the break or leaving earlier will impact the participation grade and the Final Grade.
- Students are responsible for keeping track of their absences and for catching up on any missed work.
- Make-up classes, also during reading days where necessary, are always mandatory as part of the course program.
- If a class occasionally creates conflict with another class, the student is required to inform both instructors in advance.
- Absences will also be counted during the first days of class unless students added the class during the add/drop period.
- Students will receive an "F" on each exam they miss.
- Students should take into consideration that LdM courses may run MONDAY through FRIDAY during the semester and that their schedule may be subject to adjustments until the final registration deadline.
- Students who absent themselves from courses will have their final grade penalized as indicated on the table on the following page:
